You like to annoy the others
You think it's funny

You pull students with you
You choose a victim
Youthink they are agree with you
But they are worried to be a victim

You are happy
When they come home
They don't talk to their family
And they feel alone

You bully at school
You spread rumors on social media
It's not cool
For them Twitter is a phobia

You think it's a game You play with a knife You called their name But you ruin their life

They feel tired and nervous
They want cease and desist
But there are very mysterious
